

NOMINATION FOR “BLOOPER”

Award Description

"Bloopers" recognize a humorous, embarrassing, or ironic occurrence to a member of the School. This is intended as a "light-hearted" and good-natured award to entertain members of the School at the expense of some unfortunate soul.

Who can be nominated?

Any student, faculty, or staff in the School of Natural Resources and the Environment who has done or said something they wish they hadn't, such as coming to school with mismatched shoes or creating a fiasco on a field trip. In addition to being nominated for a single outstanding event, individuals can be recognized for a long history of bumbling.

Who can nominate?

Nominations may be made by any student, faculty member, or staff in the School of Natural Resources and the Environment.

Information to be provided in the nominating petition:

Nominations must be assembled carefully and completely, and should include:

1. Name of nominee(s)
2. Petition and statement describing the event, situation or statements made by the nominee that warrant re-telling and School-wide recognition. Be sure to include sufficient detail to make clear the exceptional level of "boneheadedness," irony, or humor involved. (100-500 words.)

Selection Procedure

An Awards Committee, composed of student, faculty, and staff representatives, and appointed by the School Director, will select the award recipient based on nomination petitions submitted via google form.

This award need not be presented annually.
