

NOMINATION FOR Diversity and Inclusion Award

Award Description

The Diversity and Inclusion Award recognizes individuals that foster inclusive and welcoming environments on campus and/or at the department level. The individual's professional and service activities should reflect the School's commitment to addressing contemporary issues related to diversity and inclusion. This includes creating safe spaces for communication, encouraging diverse perspectives, recruitment and retention of a diverse employee and/or student population and policy development.

Who can be nominated?

Any student(s) or employee(s) in the School of Natural Resources and the Environment.

Who can nominate?

Nominations may be made by any student or employee in the School of Natural Resources and the Environment.

Information to be provided in the nominating petition:

Nominations must be assembled carefully and completely, and should include:

1. Name of nominee(s)
2. List of the nominee's contributions to creating inclusive and diverse learning/workplace environments.
3. Petition and narrative statement describing the qualities of the individual that qualify them for this award. (100-500 words.)

Selection Procedure

An Awards Committee, composed of student, faculty, and staff representatives, and appointed by the School Director, will select the award recipient based on nomination petitions submitted via google form.

This award need not be presented annually.