

NOMINATION FOR PUBLIC SERVICE AND OUTREACH

Award Description

Public Service and Outreach Award recognizes individuals for outstanding public service through professional contributions that go beyond their university-related responsibilities. The individual's public service activities should reflect the School's commitment to addressing contemporary natural resource issues with scholarly rigor and enthusiasm.

Who can be nominated?

Any student, faculty, or staff in the School of Natural Resources and the Environment.

Who can nominate?

Nominations may be made by any student, faculty member, or staff in the School of Natural Resources and the Environment.

Information to be provided in the nominating petition:

Nominations must be assembled carefully and completely, and should include:

1. Name of nominee(s)
2. List of the nominee's contributions, publications, or other activities developed in the course of their public service or outreach activities
3. Petition and narrative statement describing the qualities of the individual that qualify them for this award. (100-500 words.)

Selection Procedure

An Awards Committee, composed of student, faculty, and staff representatives, and appointed by the School Director, will select the award recipient based on nomination petitions submitted via google form.

This award need not be presented annually.